

Center for Successful Living plans showcase March 6

Are you interested in improving your career, your organization, your family, your life? Are you unsure of where to start? The Center for Successful Living™ (CSL) offers the opportunity for you to pre-view—firsthand—a variety of nationally recognized training programs and resources designed to help you, your family and your organization achieve maximum success. At a small cost (and no risk or obligation), you can sample training and development programs; review video, audio and printed materials; and talk to certified program trainers and facilitators.

The Center for Successful Living is offering a special Showcase to introduce the hundreds of development training programs and resources it provides to help anyone interested decide which ones will best help them, their business, their organization and their community achieve maximum success.

The Showcase will be held Friday, March 6, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Mezzaluna Ristorante, Plaza Level Meeting Rooms, 200 E. Court St. in Kankakee.

This Showcase will present some of the best programs in the world from industry leaders such as Success Motivation Institute, Brian Tracy International, TPN Success Seminar Channel and the University for Successful Living.

There will also be a special session over lunch with David Hicks, president of Success Motivation Institute (SMI), who will speak on Living a Balanced Life as a Total Person. SMI has been the world's leader in personal and professional development for over three decades and has helped millions of clients across the globe find greater happiness and develop a more abundant life.

Participants can attend the half-day program and participate in their choice of four workshops that focus on personal, professional and organizational development. Or, stay the entire day and participate in up to eight of the concurrent workshops.

The registration fee for this introductory Showcase is only $25 per person for a half day and $50 per person for the full day. Either way, participants are invited to have lunch and see Hicks' presentation.

To register or for more information, call or write The Center for Successful Living™, Executive Center, 200 E.
