Discover and Manifest Your Ultimate Destiny Chapter Headings

Chapter 1: What the Bleep Does “Ultimate Destiny” Mean?

OUTLINE:

When one looks at the term Ultimate Destiny what images come up? If we could sit for a moment and imagine ourselves living the life we would ideally choose, doing the kind of work we would feel most passionate about, how would that feel? To be able to create and live our own individual Ultimate Destiny is the dream of every human being on the planet. However, how many people are even thinking about their Ultimate Destiny? Most people are so caught up in living their life, paying their bills, and making their ends meet that it makes it very difficult to even think about fulfilling the Ultimate Destiny that they may have come here to experience in their life.

Sometimes we need a push.

This chapter will provide answers and insights from a dozen or more world-class individuals who have succeeded in living their Ultimate Destiny. These individuals will share their insights and thoughts about what it took for them, and what it can take for us to achieve our Ultimate Destiny. This chapter will educate, inspire and empower us, the reader, to realize that we too, can achieve our Ultimate Destiny.

Chapter 2: Preparing for your Journey: Know Thyself! Who am I? Why am I Here?

Outline:

Once the individual understands that their own Ultimate Destiny is something that they are excited about and is something that they can actually manifest, the journey begins. In order to truly understand one's Ultimate Destiny, one has to explore the depths of themselves in order to best see what tools, talents, and gifts they have that can be enhanced and directed toward fulfilling their Ultimate Destiny. Oftentimes, people find this to be scary, difficult, and too time consuming. This needn't be the case.

This chapter will provide fun and insightful looks into the depths of the individual to help them see the complexities within that have allowed them to become the wonderful, potentially incredible person that they are inside. Best selling author's like Stephen Covey and Rick Warren provide insights and quotes to help the individual realize that they are involved in a process – a process of self-discovery that has no end, but will yield incredible gifts along the way. By the end of the chapter, they will indeed have a deeper, richer, clearer view of the talents that lay within.

Chapter 3: 21 Steps in Discovering and Manifesting Your Ultimate Destiny

OUTLINE:

Once one realizes that to discover one's Ultimate Destiny is an amazing gift to understand, the challenge to know the depths of oneself provides a rich field to mine the invaluable facets that make up the diamond mine that is one's life.

Upon discovering the depths of who one really is and by engaging in the exercises from the previous chapter, the reader is now ready to look at the skills required in manifesting his or her Ultimate Destiny.

In addition to identifying what skills are required to succeed in one's chosen area, the individual would greatly benefit by the massive amount of resources available to help both discover and develop the necessary tools to succeed. This chapter will provide a wonderful amount of resources always available to the individual to aide them in this discovery process. The framework is established in this chapter that helps the individual understand the work they've done to this point, and it sets the stage for framework to plan and create the action steps to follow.

Chapter 4: *Ultimate Destiny Wheel of Life Exercise

OUTLINE:

Few exercises ever created can offer the incredible amount of information that is yielded in the Wheel of Life Exercise. This incredible tool provides the framework to discover the six most vitally important area of one's life. Not only does the reader discover these important areas, they are able to prioritize their importance which allows them to begin focusing on what is the most important thing in their life at this time and what needs to be addressed.

Not only will these areas be discovered and prioritized, each of these six areas will be examined and goals will be set that will move the individual closer to achieving their Ultimate Destiny in each of these specific areas of their lives.

Upon completion of the Wheel of Life Exercise, the individual will also discover the potential synergy that is created when one has developed a balanced action plan. The motivation and excitement builds as the possibility and inevitability of achieving one's goal draws ever closer.

Chapter 5: Imagine Your Ultimate Destiny

OUTLINE:

One of the most underused tools as we move through the aging process is often our imagination. Do you remember how rich our life was when we were a child and didn't have to worry about the mortgage, the groceries, the bills, the kids, our job, and our health? By the time we reached adulthood, the reality of having to be responsible for making our way in the world seemed to take up most of our time.

As a child, it seemed our job was to play. As children, we spent more time in the rich realms of our imagination than at any other time of our lives. This chapter allows us to drift back in time and discover the incredible and power and benefits of using our creative imagination. Wonderful tools such as My Ideal Image, Tapping into the Power of Imagination, and Success Map exercises provide a solid foundation for us to reconnect with that part of the child within us that knew no limits, overcame all boulders, and had no limits. That part of our imagination is now focused on the most creative way to help us move toward fulfilling our Ultimate Destiny.

Chapter 6: Envisioning Your Desired Outcomes

OUTLINE:

Once we've tapped into the amazing power of our imagination and used it to brainstorm a number of different ideas and resources to move us to the next step in our process, it's time to take that next step.

Visioning takes the beauty of what we've just accomplished with our imagination and provides the framework to begin seeing ourselves as we truly wish to be seen. Quantum theory states that as we begin to see ourselves doing anything, we begin creating the energy needed to draw the sub-atomic particles together to be creating this particular reality. Therefore, it is paramount that we learn to vision in a way that allows us to see ourselves fully integrated into our Ultimate Destiny.

Using established tools like the Success Outcome Map, Golden Bridge Exercise, Visioning worksheet, Science of Mind Treatment, and the Power Vision exercise will give the reader a comprehensive and thorough set of tools to create the most positive vision that will take them to their Ultimate Destiny.

Chapter 7: Nurturing Your Heart's Desires

OUTLINE:

In chapter four, we looked through The Wheel of Life Exercise and discovered six areas that were vitally important to us. This chapter will allow the reader to identify those things within those six areas that are most important in their life. These are the specific people, events, and outcomes that we hold so close and dear in our hearts.

To be able to identify what one wants from the deepest fibers of their being from the bottom of their heart will provide a strong foundation to push from when working towards fulfilling their ultimate destiny. Incredible resources from HeartMath, The Love Center, Unity, Reverend David McArthur (author of the Intelligent Heart), Glen Clark's I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes, Mediation by Roy Eugene Davis, Visualization, Affirmations by Reverend Anne Marie Evers, Treasure Map worksheet, Power of Prayer Treatment, and the Success Map Exercise to identify coaches and cheerleaders to support your mission are just some of the tools given in this powerful chapter.

To keep these deep, rich heart desires close to us and use them to keep us motivated and know that as our Ultimate Destiny manifests itself, we'll be able to honor those relationships and events from the deepest fibers of our being. This is living at its highest.

Chapter 8: Setting Empowering Priority Goals

OUTLINE:

The foundation has been laid to discover the necessary elements to manifest one's Ultimate Destiny. We've identified what's important to us, both in a general, and then a specific way. We've used our imagination to tap back into the exciting world of unlimited creativity that we once thrived on as a child. We took that creative imagination and used it to fuel the vision we had of ourselves as we saw ourselves achieving our Ultimate Destiny.

The next phase of manifesting our Ultimate Destiny calls for us to set goals that will deeply empower us toward our vision while keeping us moving in an efficient and effective manner towards our goal. Examples such as Developing Spiritual New Year's Resolutions, Setting Spiritually Oriented Goals from TULIPS (The Ultimate Life Inpowerment System), Partnership with God, and the Dream Minder provide the necessary tools and insights to move the reader to the next level of manifestation. The manifestation of achieving our Ultimate Destiny takes a step towards reality as we identify the goals along the way that bring us closer to living the life we've dreamed about.

Chapter 9: Developing and Implementing Effective Action Plans

OUTLINE:

As with any journey one takes, one will encounter obstacles and setbacks along the way. We realize that life does not always flow so smoothly for everyone... hardly anyone in fact. However, what makes life seem so easy for some people is that they've developed a living philosophy that allows them to deal with whatever comes up in their lives. To have this type of philosophy or balanced action plan provides a foundation that allows us to deal with whatever comes up. We realize that obstacles will surface, but our plan and our philosophy will allow us to effectively deal with the problem.

It's like the old metaphor goes: When they start throwing lemons, start making lemonade.”

Tools utilized in this chapter will include but not be limited to: Co-Creative Visioning and Strategic Planning, Discernment Grids, Fishing for Whales Exercise, Creative Thinking and Problem Solving exercises from Personal Success Techniques, and 10 Things You Can Do Today To Change Your Life. These tools help us deal with the issues that can surface at any time of life. The goal is to deal with it, learn from it, let it go, and move on – with a positive mindset.

Chapter 10: Radiating Gratitude and Appreciation:

OUTLINE:

One of the most powerful tools in any capacity for living revolves around showing one's gratitude and appreciation. The ability to move into the heart and feel and then radiate the feelings of gratitude and appreciation is one of the healthiest and most positive things an individual can do. When we move into a state of appreciation, gratitude or love in our heart, research by The Institute of Heart Math has shown that our metabolic and physiological state changes. It moves us into a state of congruence that allows the body to regulate itself in a natural, yet healthy way.

This tool will be supported by quotes and exercises on gratitude, HeartMath research on appreciation, the Seven Ascension Attitudes, etc.

In looking to achieve one's Ultimate Destiny, appreciation and gratitude are vital components for us in living an honorable, integrity-filled life that is rooted in gratitude and appreciation for not just all life – but for the concept of life itself as well.

Chapter 11: 101 Resources for Ensuring Your Ultimate Success

OUTLINE:

This chapter will focus on providing the reader with a tremendous amount of resource material that they can easily access to reinforce and continue the personal work they have accomplished through the book. These resources will cover all phases of support in working through the steps to achieve one's Ultimate Destiny.

Resources such as publications, web sites, audio and video programs, training programs, coaching and mentoring are some of the rich supporting information provided for assistance. This inventory is already being developed on-line as a resource guide at the following website:

www.101ResourcestoDiscoverYourDreams.com

It is the author's design that every phase necessary to create the proper mindset and tools necessary in achieving one's Ultimate Destiny be covered. Once completed, this process will create a step-by-step plan for any individual to not only grow tremendously as a human being by discovering new levels within, they in turn can use this discovery and the steps and tools provided to confidently achieve their true Ultimate Destiny.

Marketing *Discover and Manifest Your Ultimate Destiny

This book is the first in a series of 6 to 7 related titles and it is targeted to individuals who are seriously interested in personal growth and development. These are the individuals who attend seminars and workshops and who belong to various membership organizations and personal and professional networking organizations.

Many of our customers will be encouraged to buy our books by some of the best selling authors and best known trainers and coaches on the planet. This is possible because the author already has strategic alliances and or distributorships with these featured resource providers AND because their resources are featured in the book and supportive web sites.

We have developed several online quizzes and personal assessment instruments that are being used to generate Opt In data bases of likely customers for the books. In addition, through the Ultimate Destiny Online Quiz and Hall of Fame Award, many of the best-selling authors in the world have been nominated as someone who is living their ultimate destiny while helping others manifest theirs. The award nominees are being invited to contribute content to the series of at least six books in the planned Ultimate Destiny series.

We are developing an Ultimate Destiny membership program and individuals who buy the book will receive a free one year membership valued at $99. We have developed a 100+ plus page e-book as The Ultimate Destiny Discovery Exercise. This product will be launched in late July 2006 and will promote membership in Ultimate Destiny and advance sales of the printed books.

We are developing teleseminars, Webinars and live seminars and workshops based on the contents of the Ultimate Destiny books. We are also creating Ultimate Destiny board and electronic games and an all day experiential Ultimate Destiny Game Planning Playshop.

The books will be marketed and distributed through our strategic alliance partners and through our featured resource providers. The distribution infrastructure will include thousands of local non-profit Empowerment Resource Centers. One aspect of the Ultimate Destiny marketing strategy is to donate 10 million dollars worth of Empowerment Training Mentoring Systems.

That would generate major media coverage and launch the first 1,000 local Resource Centers, all of which will feature our books, audio/video programs and hundreds of related products. They will be "donated" to United Way's, Community Development Corporations, Urban Leagues, Public Housing Authorities and youth social service agencies as part of our Expanding the Circle of Success project to foster self-help, empowerment and capacity building. Funding for the 1,000 Resource Centers will be generated through our two affiliated non-profit organizations by our team members who have previously generated over 100 million dollars in grants and donations.

While there have been several books written on the topic of destiny, the Ultimate Destiny series will provide the most comprehensive, interactive discovery processes that facilitate personal discovery, self-assessment and the creation of self-motivating personal visions and missions, goals and implementation plans for any individual interested in personal growth.

In addition, our web sites and membership programs market many of the competitive titles at a 40% to 50% profit to our company. For more of an overview of the various resources we will use to market and promote the Ultimate Destiny books, please refer the Resources for Marketing and Promotion.
