

Amazing Opportunity to talk with James Twyman about his new book

The Barn Dance: Somewhere between Heaven and Earth, there is a place where the magic never ends . . .

Sunday August 1st, 2:00 to 4:00 pm. Sedona Library

Twyman is giving away free advance copies of his book to area residents who agree to read it first and then attend the presentation where he will discuss it and answer questions. Participants will be asked to make a donation of $1 to cover the cost of shipping books to Sedona and invited to make a donation to help pay the fee for renting the meeting space.

The book tells the story of how two men broke into Linda Twyman's apartment in Evanston, Illinois on November 27, 2005, and brutally ended her young life. Three and a half years later, guided by a series of visions and dreams, James Twyman was mystically drawn to a barn deep in the Nevada wilderness where Heaven and Earth collide and magic changes lives.

"If you've ever wondered if we really can communicate with our loved ones who have passed to the other side, this book is your answer. If you've ever thought that Heaven and Earth never meet, then this story will reveal a world you never imagined . . . a world where love never ends and life goes on forever. Once you pick up this amazing book, you won't want to put it down, and your life will never be the same." Amazon.com.

Books are available for pick up at The Well Red Coyote and The Worm bookstores or by mail for $3.38 shipping
