

Wisdom, Wealth, and Wellness: Taking New Thought Principles to the World

Reprinted with permission from the January 2005 Creative Thought Magazine.

In his book, Creative Mind, Dr. Ernest Holmes wrote:

“We have within us a power that is greater than anything we shall ever contact in the outer, a power that can overcome every obstacle in our life and set us safe, satisfied and at peace, healed and prosperous, in a new light, and in a new life. Mind, all mind, is right here. It is God’s Mind, God’s Creative Power, God’s Creative Life. We have as much of this Power to use in our daily life as we can believe in and embody”.

Would you like to be living a healthier, happier, richer, and more fulfilling life? Of course, everyone would; but everyone is not. In fact, the majority of people on the planet are not satisfied with their lives; they are not as healthy, happy, or wealthy as they would like to be. While the New Thought Movement has been around for over 100 years, it is apparent most people in the world are not aware of it and are therefore not presently able to take advantage of the Truth Principles presented in The Science of Mind by Dr. Holmes.

Now there is an organization, based in New Thought principles, whose mission is to help millions of people experience greater personal and spiritual enlightenment in every aspect of their lives. The founders of Wisdom, Wealth, and Wellness, Inc. (www.WisdomWealthWellness.com) are women and men dedicated to providing resources that are empowering and enlightening to all who desire to improve their lives on any level. WWW is doing this by establishing strategic alliances of like-hearted individuals, companies, and nonprofit organizations with a shared vision of helping people all over the world awaken to their true spiritual identity, realize more of their inherent potential, and know how to fulfill their ultimate destiny.

One practical way they plan to accomplish their mission of “Expanding the Circle of Success” is by establishing 10,000 Empowerment Resource Centers, first throughout the United States, then throughout the world. A model Resource Center has been established at the Creative Center for Successful Living, a Religious Science Church in Escondido, California (www.EmpowermentResourceCenter.com). The next is planned for Sedona, Arizona, and a third in San Diego. Each center will offer resources to its members and everyone in the community. As the Circle of Success is expanded, individuals become empowered, finding their higher purpose, and the community expands, too. Wisdom, Wealth, and Wellness provides the opportunity that allows each person to select the specific resources each one needs to become all he or she can be, find their purpose on the planet, and help others discover these same things for themselves. The unique aspect of this organization is that it does not just personally provide the resources; WWW does it by creating strategic alliances. One such alliance is with HeartMath®

HeartMath has created a process of aligning mind and heart, creating a consciousness called coherence. In this state, stress and anxiety dissolve, and the result is making wise, heart-based decisions. The HeartMath tools have been applied in schools, churches, hospitals, prisons, and community organizations—any place that encourages people to use the wisdom of their heart. In schools, for instance, test scores have increased dramatically, problems are resolved without conflict, and students and teachers are more relaxed and satisfied. Think what would happen in your church, family, or workplace if everyone had access to this powerful resource. It is the vision of WWW that this will be the case very soon.

Through alliances with HeartMath®, their Freeze-Frame tool is available to virtually anyone who wants to be more successful. In Kankakee, Illinois, a plan has been proposed by WWW that will allow every student and teacher in schools, every hospital staff member, and every community leader to have this tool at his or her disposal. What a dramatic change this community will experience! Imagine what it would be like to have this tool available to every youngster and adult in your own church, school, and community. “Inherently, each of us has the substance within to achieve whatever our goals and dreams define. What is missing from each of us is the training, education, knowledge, and insight to utilize what we already have”. Mark Twain

The Foundation for Inspired Learning (www.inspiredlearning.org) is another ally of Wisdom, Wealth, and Wellness. Inspired Learning is a revolutionary way of learning that relies on the innate wisdom of each individual. The founder of this powerful process, Peter Reding, realizes each person is fully capable and has direct access to his or her own best resources. In this alliance, WWW will assist the Foundation for Inspired Learning in establishing more than 3,000 Inspired Learning Centers around the world, in virtually every nation. The Inspired Learning model will be featured in showcases and expos, first in the United States, then in every country around the globe.

The New Thought Spirit In Business Network (NTBN) comprises alliances of like-minded businesses. The NTBN produces programs designed to promote the application of spiritual principles in business. It includes a variety of programs and services to help businesses become highly successful and profitable operating as “New Thought” businesses. Featured resources include publications, interactive multi-media programs, and online training programs produced and distributed by the Successful Living Broadcast Network and the University for Successful Living™.

Membership in NTBN is designed to help ensure the success of spiritually-centered businesses. Educational programs and consulting services are available to help individuals build and operate their companies on a solid spiritual foundation. For the first time, this network offers the opportunity for those who are just beginning a business, as well as for those already operating a business, to assure success by implementing spiritual practices in their business operations.

If you are interested in the practical application of New Thought in any aspect of your life, Wisdom, Wealth, Wellness has resources you can use. Individuals, corporations, and not-for-profit organizations all benefit from the many resources available through this New Thought organization founded by ministers and business people, all grounded in New Thought Principles. We want the world to be in coherence all the time. We know this will add the much-desired peace our planet deserves.
